(Only one form required per Employer and Lord Abbett Distributor LLC)

Name of Employer ("Employer")

Lord Abbett Distributor LLC ("Service Provider")

The Employer represents to the Service Provider that the Employer maintains (or will maintain on or before January 1, 2019, or such later compliance date as may be established) a written plan complying with the regulations under section 403(b) of the Internal Revenue Code ("Code"), and that among other things, the plan provides the exchange.

The Employer represents to the Service Provider that it will notify the Service Provider promptly in writing in the event that it ceases to be an eligible employer under Code section 403(b) or to maintain the plan.

The Employer and Service Provider agree to, from time to time in the future, provide each other with the following:

- Information necessary for the resulting contract/custodial account, or any other contract/custodial account to which contributions have been made by the Employer, to satisfy Code section 403(b), including information concerning the participant's employment and information that takes into account other Code section 403(b) contracts/custodial accounts or qualified employer plans (such as whether a severance from employment has occurred for purposes of the distribution restrictions in Treasury Regulation section 1.403(b)-6 and whether the hardship withdrawal rules of Treasury Regulation section 1.403(b)-6(d)(2) are satisfied).
- Information necessary for the resulting contract/custodial account, or any other contract/custodial account to which contributions have been made by the Employer, to satisfy other tax requirements (such as whether a plan loan satisfies the conditions in Code section 72(p)(2) so that the loan is not a deemed distribution under Code section 72(p)(1)).
- In the event an eligible rollover distribution is received that includes after tax employee contributions or designated Roth contributions, information regarding the participant's basis under Code section 72 in the amount rolled over.
- Any other information necessary to ensure compliance with applicable laws and regulations.

It is also understood that the Employer may authorize a third party to provide this information, and Employer recognizes that the Service Provider or its designee will not perform calculations (such as expressly agreed to do so in writing with the Employer).

The Parties agree that each is obligated to provide only information available on its records, or the records of any designee, and the Service Provider does not guarantee the accuracy of any information that is based on certification by a participant or a previous service provider.

The Parties agree that each of their authorized representatives will maintain as confidential any information provided by the other pursuant to this Agreement unless otherwise required by law.
