Escheatment: Your property may be transferred to the appropriate state (i.e., escheated) if no activity occurs in the account within the time period specified by state law. For more details, consult your state’s website or call your state government’s escheatment customer service number.

STEP 4: BENEFICIARY DESIGNATION

If you have an additional primary beneficiary(ies), or wish to designate an additional contingent beneficiary(ies), please attach a separate list. If you cannot accomplish your estate-planning objectives by using Step 4 to designate your beneficiary(ies), you may submit another form of written beneficiary designation to the custodian.

Upon my death, distribute all funds in my SIMPLE IRA as listed below. I revoke all prior beneficiary designations, if any, made by me for these assets.

I understand that if I do not designate a beneficiary, assets will be paid to my estate. If the custodian receives satisfactory proof that a primary beneficiary(ies) has predeceased the applicant, the assets will be paid to the contingent beneficiary(ies).

I understand that I may add to or change the beneficiary(ies) designated below at any time after the account is established by filing a new beneficiary designation with the custodian. Any such subsequent beneficiary designation will revoke all prior designations. (If no percentage is specified, the account balance will be shared equally among all designated beneficiaries.) All forms must be acceptable to the custodian and signed by me.

Primary Beneficiary(ies) If there is no Primary Beneficiary living at the time of my death, the balance is to be distributed to the Contingent Beneficiaries I designate.

If your beneficiary allocation totals at least 99% but less than 100% (e.g., three named beneficiaries are each assigned a 33.33% interest in the account), Lord Abbett will assign the unallocated remainder to the first beneficiary.

Spousal Consent: This section should be reviewed if you are married and designate a beneficiary other than your spouse. It is your responsibility to determine if this section applies. If you are married and reside in a community property or marital property state (AZ, CA, ID, LA, NM, NV, TX, WA, or WI), you must obtain your spouse's consent if you have not designated your spouse as the primary beneficiary for at least half of the account. You may need to consult with legal counsel. Neither the custodian nor the plan sponsor is liable for any consequences resulting from your failure to provide proper spousal consent.

I am the spouse of the above-named participant. I acknowledge that I have received a full and reasonable disclosure of my spouse's property and financial obligations. Due to any possible consequences of giving up my community property or marital property interest in this SIMPLE IRA, I have been advised to see a tax professional or legal advisor.

I hereby consent to the beneficiary designation(s) indicated above. I assume full responsibility for any adverse consequence that may result.

No tax or legal advice was given to me by the custodian or plan sponsor.
