All distributions will be reinvested. Exchange privilege is offered within the same class of shares.

Under the provisions of my IRA account, I have the right to direct the investments. I understand, however, that the investment options selected may not be available to me and are governed by the terms of the current prospectus for the funds.

Investment decisions should always be made based on an investor's specific financial needs, objectives, goals, time horizon, and risk tolerance. Consult with your financial advisor before making any investment decisions.

A prospectus or summary prospectus contains important information about a fund, including investment objectives, risks, charges, and ongoing expenses, which an investor should carefully consider before investing. To obtain a prospectus or summary prospectus on any Lord Abbett mutual fund, please contact your financial advisor or Lord Abbett Distributor LLC at 888-522-2388 or visit our website at lordabbett.com. Read the prospectus carefully before investing.

STEP 6: BENEFICIARY DESIGNATION

If you have an additional primary beneficiary(ies) or wish to designate an additional contingent beneficiary(ies), please attach a separate list. If you cannot accomplish your estate-planning objectives by using Step 6 to designate your beneficiary(ies), you may submit another form of written beneficiary designation to the custodian.

Upon my death, distribute all funds in my IRA as listed below. I revoke all prior beneficiary designations, if any, made by me for these assets.

I understand that if I do not designate a beneficiary, assets will be paid to my estate. If the custodian receives satisfactory proof that a primary beneficiary(ies) has predeceased the applicant, the assets will be paid to the contingent beneficiary(ies).

I understand that I may add or change the beneficiary(ies) designated below at any time after the account is established by filing a new beneficiary designation with the custodian. Any such subsequent beneficiary designation will revoke all prior designations. (If no percentage is specified, the account balance will be shared equally among all designated beneficiaries.) All forms must be acceptable to the custodian and signed by me.

If your beneficiary allocation totals at least 99% but less than 100% (e.g., three named beneficiaries are each assigned a 33% interest in the account), Lord Abbett will assign the unallocated remainder to the first beneficiary.

Primary Beneficiary(ies) If there is no Primary Beneficiary living at the time of my death, the balance is to be distributed to the Contingent Beneficiaries I designate.

Spousal Consent: This section should be reviewed if the applicant is married and designates a beneficiary other than the spouse. It is the applicant's responsibility to determine whether this section applies. If the applicant is married and resides in a community property or marital property state (AZ, CA, ID, LA, NM, NV, TX, WA, or WI), the applicant must obtain his/her spouse's consent if the applicant has not designated his/her spouse as the primary beneficiary for at least half the account. The applicant may need to consult with legal counsel. Neither the custodian nor the plan sponsor is liable for any consequences resulting from the applicant's failure to provide proper spousal consent.

I am the spouse of the above-named applicant. I acknowledge that I have received a full and reasonable disclosure of my spouse's property and financial obligations. Due to any possible consequences of giving up my community property or marital property interest in this IRA, I have been advised to see a tax professional or legal advisor.

Examples of such situations include the death of a beneficiary, divorce, birth or adoption of a child, beneficiary name change, and beneficiary address change. You may wish to notify your designated beneficiary that he or she is the beneficiary of your account. In the event of your death, your beneficiary must continue to receive the distributions under the payout period option you elected in accordance with the applicable tax law rules for required distributions at the death of the IRA owner.
